Vagina Monologues (Recap)

We made ~$730! Super well even having cancelled a show

Each organization we are donating to is getting about $250

Organizer Training/WRC Updates

- We have packets to outline our plan of attack for the WRC

- If you were unable to attend, Lori and Same are happy to meet with anyone

- Lori and Same met with the provost, director of Women's Studies, Rising Tide director,

CLAS dean division of lifelong learning and more!

- Lots of movement among programs/departments on campus

- We have been promised space in the union, but asked to have us hold off until they figure everything out

- Believe that long term it is better for us to be associated with Rising Tide and WGS but this will not solve our problem or prioritize our needs

- Dean Dana said if we have not heard from group/ the provost by end of spring break we can go ahead with the space in the union

-Provost was on original planning committee for WRC back in 1989, so he is working in the best interest of our group

-Petition stuff - need 400 signatures before 3/31 so we can deliver it

-Erin, Olivia: have been distributing QR codes and making announcements in classes

-3-minute speech: we want to work on developing an “elevator pitch”/important information points

-Coalition document: will be delivered along with petition

Social Justice/Diversity: Week of March 27th

-SWA will be participating & collecting signatures

-Hopefully do an activist fair

Hostile Student Government Takeover

MC is running unopposed for student gov president

She's coming in next week to talk about her goals (for example: free tampons in the union!)

Beautiful Week: Week of April 17th

Begins with a sex carnival and ends with a slut walk

Need to plan events for the week

Beautiful week needs a makeover (lol)

- Continue tabling every day

- Body Positivi-tea

- Keep in mind how beauty ideals effect WOC more than white women

- Showing of videos

- Multicultural fashion show

- Natural beauty products table is usually popular: do a room/event instead?

Meeting 4/10 will be for poster making- please come!!

Shirts

See Delaney to sign up if you have not done so yet

Finalizing design and ordering on Friday

Update on WRC campaign

Sam and Lori had a meeting with VCAA today,

Provost Hecker and Dean Dana were there as well

WRC was on the agenda due to enough people mentioning it on survey

WRC is on official meeting record

No student input was invited on the subject

Expecting to hear from provost office this week, should have more information about space by the middle of next week

Working on contacting press

Sarah is submitting an article to the MaineCampus, coming out next Monday

Delivering the petition by the end of the month: we need 1000 signatures!

Get signatures this week by going into clubs, get members to sign and leads to sign coalition document

Lori Visited UPenn this week and talked to their director for their WRC

Center was the result of a sit-in protesting sexual assault

Has a ton of resources!

Recommended reaching out to UMaine alumni that might be allies to potentially provide funds

Will likely begin a papering campaign the week after the petition is delivered

Potential new positions/committee on SWA

Alumni and historian chair so our presence on campus is well documented

Pregnancy and parenting sub-committee

Would work with Commuter and Non-Traditional Student Network to support students who are/become pregnant

1 in 3

Abortion and diversity speak out all day tomorrow

Taylor will post link

1 in 3 week of action is the same week as beautiful week, will combine tables

WRC Updates

This is a petition celebration meeting! We hit 1000 signatures.

Sarah's article in MaineCampus

It's being passed around for everyone to read and it's also available online

We are still waiting to hear from the administration about space

Lots of rumors are flying around, nothing official

Have heard nothing back from the Provost, just the assistant Provost letting us know he is out of town

Emailed asking that we are included in conversations about the space

Budget is still not in the conversation

Delivering the petition and coalition document

We need to make a plan: deliver to Provost, Dean Dana

Delivered this week, Sam and Lori will keep us posted about exact date and time

WRC History

Special Collections: Sam and Lori visited and requested WRC documents to give us info about budgeting and history- everyone is welcome to check them out when they come in on Thursday

Online: BDN article that had specific information about budget

Using it to give us a strong baseline

Upcoming steps:

1. Papering campaign

First week of April

Print hundreds of flyers and put them all

2. Administrative overload

Phone calls and emails on a systematic schedule

Historian/alumni chair

Do not have a clear description of what this position will look like

Having documentation of this process will be useful if a need to revive WRC ever comes up again

Anyone interested is welcome to collaborate on this process

Update on the subcommittee on pregnancy and parenting

Possible campus Doula Project

We've reached out to multiple people about working together

We have a meeting at Mabels on Wednesday

Reached out to CANS

Interested in making sure all genders are included

Anyone who wants to get involved can do so!

Orono Adult Ed: Doula class May 8th and May 15th 6-8pm $20

Beautiful Week

We need to start advertising (FB event and flyer)

SASH is doing a sex carnival that Friday

Tampon and pad drive

We have been approached by multiple groups about collaboration

Thoughts on

Sexual Assault Awareness month (April)

Clothesline Project: shirts where people write their sexual assault experiences on shirts and hanging them up in a public place

Collab with Arianna & Office of Sexual Assault and Violence Prevention

Announcements

-We ordered t-shirts! They should be here 4/10

-Amnesty International: reading of International Declaration of Rights evening of April 14th- if anyone is interested in reading on behalf of SWA let Lori know

-Wednesday April 19th: Maine Peace Action Committee building a wall of hate and tearing it down! Let Olivia Ruhlin know if you're interested in adding to it

Beautiful Week: recap

Tabling events were very successful

Great turnout for Slut Walk in spite of the nasty weather!!

WRC update

Lori and Sam met with Sharon Barker, the former WRC director

- Sought advice on how to move forward without funding
- Have SWA in control of the center for now and maintain ties between SWA and the WRC
- Not being controlled by the university as a student group is an advantage for us
- Keep making our presence known in the physical space so they do not take it back
- If anyone wants to do a capstone or independent study on the WRC there is a lot of research available to you

Lori and Sam met with Kenda Scheele, who designated when exactly we get the space

- Not promised by the end of the semester, but definitely over the summer

-Anyone that is around this summer is welcome and encouraged to help with setup

Logistics next semester and over the summer

-Entirely up to SWA to staff it

-Mainly volunteer run, but it is a lot of hours to cover

-Pool community resources to send people in the right direction

-Standing volunteer schedule

-Everyone planning to volunteer should be SafeZone trained

-Developing a specific training for the space so we can demonstrate our qualifications as volunteers

-Reception event to thank everyone involved when it finally opens

There are no more plans to meet with administrators except to keep us in the loop

Group name change

Would be productive to have it done by the end of the semester

Put feminism in the title?

Make sure the name is more inclusive to gender minorities

Elections next week

Please come prepared to speak briefly if you'd like to run for anything, as all positions are available:

2 co-chairs

Secretary

Treasurer

PR chair

1 in 3 chair

Historian

Descriptions will be posted on Facebook and definitely feel free to speak with anyone who holds the positions you are interested in

Announcements

-Follow the SWA Instagram @umaineswa

- Clotheslines Project display will be up Thursday 4/27 either on the mall or in the Bangor room

- Lipstick Project: April 25th public address by Leigh Boyle at 7pm in DPC 100 and luncheon at 12:30 in the Bangor room

-April 25th at 4:30 in Little 116 WGS Capstone presentations- come support your SWA homies!!

-Science March turnout at ~350

Student Women's Association

Meeting Minutes

Monday, August 28th, 2017

Opening

The first regular meeting of the Student's Women's Association of the 2017-2018 academic year was called to order at 6:03 p.m. on Monday, August 28th, 2017 in the Walker Room by co-chair Lori Loftin. 35 people attended the meeting.

Check In

Name, Pronouns, Major, what you did over the summer

Business

- History of SWA: been around on campus since 1970's, participate in Beautiful Week, Slut Walk,
- Women's Resource Center updates: WRC was defunded in 2015, through student activism it was reinstalled, new location is room 227 in the Student Union, it's super cute and well decorated, staffed mostly by volunteers (mostly Sam) but we're working towards getting a staff employee.
- New Women, Gender, and Sexuality president has possibly offered a higher ed intern, Lori will be working via WGS, Ashlee will be working via CHF,
- WRC Open House this Thursday (August 31) from 6 – 8 p.m. PLEASE COME! There will be food, friends, fun stuff!
- Also on Thursday (August 31) Mabel Wadsworth will be hosting an taco and beer event at Margarita's from 6 – 8 p.m. (so you should go to the open house and mingle and then go to Margs and eat good food and drink and donate to a good cause!).
- SASH has meetings immediately following SWA on Mondays at 7 p.m. in the WRC

Announcements

- Changing our name ASAP from Student Women's Association to Feminist Collective
- No meeting next week because of Labor Day!
- Organization Fair is this Wednesday from 10 – 2, SWA and SASH will be there!

Upcoming Events

- Rush event for SWA on Friday, September 8th

- Training for the WRC will be the following weekend (9th – 11th), if you want to volunteer in the WRC this is a mandatory training to help prepare you for volunteering. If that time doesn't work we will try and work with you to make sure you can volunteer.
- October 17th in the North Pod is 'Take Back the Night, SWA has done this event for decades, it's a very intense event where people share their experiences with sexual assault and violence,
- October 19th (date may change) Mabels is throwing a body positivity pool party in Brewer somewhere.
- Out of Silence and 1 in 3 Week will be happening and coordinated by Taylor but are not scheduled yet.

Feminist Issues

- Maine People's Alliance needs help canvassing in Bangor, if you are interested contact Kirsten, there will be pizza!
- Please join the Black Student Union! Meetings are not scheduled but like them on Facebook! Ask Kirsten if you are interested!
- There were signs put up on Move In Weekend that were incredibly derogatory and offensive that said things like daughter drop off, honk if she's 18, mother and daughter drop off. We are taking steps to try and find those responsible and hold them accountable for their gross and disgusting actions.
- ALSO there is emergency contraception available in the WRC FOR FREE for anyone who needs it. Tell your friends!

Business

- Jacob Wood from student government is coming to talk to us!
- Rush event went well! Pizza, chatting, new faces, all good stuff. Any suggestions as to how to improve?
- We have started the process for our club's name change, from Student Women's Association to the Feminist Collective in order to be more inclusive of people who are trans, non-binary, gender non-conforming.
- WRC is hosting its first educational event called Sex in College! Wednesday, September 20th at 6 p.m. in the WRC, Sam Saucier is leading it; it is targeted towards new students who have questions about sex that weren't answered adequately in high school.
- Taylor Cray is leading the 1 in 3 campaign, stay tuned!
- Take Back the Night is coming! Tuesday, October 17th from 5 – 7 p.m. (time may change) in the North Pod! An opportunity for those who have been affected by sexual violence to talk about it openly and safely. It's an emotional event, be ready. Emily Cain and Dean Dana might be there, stay tuned. It will be a non-mandatory reporting event. Mobile Mind Spa will be at the WRC the following day for a possible decompression zone.
- Advocates for Youth will be holding a conference next week; Lori will be attending and gone in DC from Thursday – Monday. Meghan will also be gone at a Mable's event, so Sam will be running meeting.

- WGS Advisory Board needs a WGS student to be on the board! Anyone interested should contact Lori!
- Jacob Wood everyone! He is from student government and SHAC, student government has a 1.5 million dollar budget so clubs need to submit funding requests!!!!

Feminist Issues

- Title IX Debate! Betsy Devos is the worst. Adya knows what's up and will keep us posted. Kirsten suggested a pledge for Dean Dana to sign to ensure that UMaine will remain safe. Robyn suggests that we declare ourselves a sanctuary school. Kirsten suggests petitions targeting department heads. Sam suggests doing a petition so soon after our WRC petition might make it less effective? Kirsten suggests a protest and people seem really stoked. Olivia suggests chaining ourselves to the Title IX office? Lori suggests approaching Dean Dana as politely as possible, and then maybe a protest. Sam suggests an educational awareness campaign about Title IX so that people know what's up and why taking it away is dangerous and how it will affect them. Kirsten wants you to know that she loves guerilla activism and Olivia wants you to know that she loves organized activism! Let's make a plan!
 - Plan: go to Dean Dana with our requirements, if he is passive or unresponsive then we progress to organized educational activism. Kirsten will head a campaign; she will create a Facebook group and if you're interested contact Kirsten Daley on Facebook. Kirsten is ON IT!
- Olivia Pennington takes the floor and updates everyone on the panel discussing the offensive banners. Olivia had an email discussion with Dean Dana, very interesting story, ask her about it.

Business

- Siobhan from SPIA came to talk about CARE (care packages) being sent to Jordan and Syria, they are an international nonprofit focused on empowerment of women and girls. Wednesday, October 11th is International Day of the Girl so stay tuned for an event to take place.
- IT'S OFFICIAL Y'ALL! We are now the Feminist Collective!
- Out of Silence is happening on November 10th in Minsky Hall. There is a Mable's event the night before (11/9) and we will be performing there as well. Out of Silence will be formatted via read aloud scripts, so you don't have to memorize lines. If you are interested message Taylor Cray on Facebook.
- Friday October 13th we will be going apple picking! 4:30 p.m. at Treworgy Orchards. We will be carpooling and possibly baking apple goods afterwards!
- Clothes Swap is on October 11th in the Coe Room from 2-4:30, if you go home for Fall Break you could bring clothes from home to swap at the event.
- Sex Week and Coming Out Week are in 2 weeks! Fem-C and LGBTQ services are collaborating and there are tons of fun events planned! Stop by the WRC to see the full schedule and contact Sam Saucier for more information! Gay Club night is also happening at the end of the week!
- Take Back the Night is happening in 2 weeks! Tuesday, October 17th!
- Mabels is doing a fundraiser to combat 40 days for life protestors, Meghan posted about it in the page so look that up if you are interested.

Feminist Issues

- There was a 55-year-old man in a men's restroom last night that approached a male UMaine student and had unlawful sexual contact. We all received multiple text message alerts today about it.
 - How do we offer resources immediately/what can those resources be?
 - Meg called UMPD and asked questions and they said, "they are still searching for him, they don't have any idea who he is or anything about him."
 - The text alerts were insufficient in providing a sense of safety or resources
 - UMPD was in the library, but their presence caused more panic
- Las Vegas // Puerto Rico
 - Organize a decompression space

Business

- Apple picking was super fun! Lots of beautiful Insta pics came of it and it was a great time. Pick up some apples if you want!
- TOMORROW is Take Back the Night! 6-8 p.m. in the North Pod. It's a non-mandatory reporting event where people can share their stories about sexual assault, harassment, and/or violence. It's a very emotional event, you don't have to attend and if you do you don't have to share your story, but you are welcome to if you want. We are encouraging people to wear purple or teal.
- Wednesday is the decompression space in the WRC from 11-1 with the Mobile Mind Spa, feel free to stop by then or any other time as well.
- Health Equity Alliance is doing free HIV screening from 9-1 in the WRC on Thursday!
- Also on Thursday is the Kink Shame Kink Same Event for Sex Week @ 4 p.m. in the WRC.
- PRIDE CLUB NIGHT @ Yamas in Old Town at 10 p.m. on Friday. PSA: pregame and drink responsibly, we are representing Fem-C so please be conscious.
- Week of Action is next week! If you are willing to table MWF 10-3 at all contact Taylor Cray or sign up on the DoodlePoll (on Fem-C Facebook page) and help out! The focus this year is Crisis Pregnancy Centers and Taylor is planning on making a pamphlet to inform people who are tabling.
- Out of Silence is happening Friday November 10th at 6 p.m! Please come and support this event!

- SWOP Behind Bars is a potential collaboration that might be happening with Bree; it involves connecting people with pen-pals with incarcerated sex workers.

Feminist Issues

- Today there was a preacher on campus who was spewing very hateful speech targeting the LGBTQ flag raising ceremony. A lot of members showed up to counter protest and show support for the marginalized groups he was targeting.
- The #MeToo campaign has been spreading like wildfire on social media, how do people feel about that? Most everyone now knows people who shared these posts.

Name, Pronouns, what is your favorite smell?

Business

- MC is here! She is the President of student government at UMaine and is here supporting Fem-C and also encouraging members to get more involved with student government in the hopes of making a difference by getting engaged as a Senator. Senate meets Tuesdays in the Bangor Room at 6 p.m. and has a myriad of roles on campus that really impact students, especially marginalized communities.
- Sarah O'Malley is also here! She is the President of Active Minds, a student group on campus that works to de-stigmatize mental health on college campuses. They are putting on the second annual Mental Health Monologues (a story sharing event for people willing to share their stories about experiences with mental health) and if anyone is interested in getting involved (sharing their own story, performing someone else's story, writing a story to be performed, or helping with tech) contact Sarah O'Malley on Facebook or at sarahomalley@msn.com.
- Cassie and Lila need help with the Vagina Monologues! Tabling to promote the event is starting as soon as possible, please sign up if you can! There will be a Doodlepoll on the group page and the supplies will be in the WRC. Please help if you can!
- Wednesday night Fem-C is having a Feminist Craft Night with WGS at 5 p.m. in the Coe Room (same room as meeting). Come make duct tape condom cases and rant about feminist issues!
- VAGINA MONOLOGUES are February 9th and 10th! Tickets are only being sold at the doors, opens at 6:30. Get there early!

- Women's History Month! Fem-C is coordinating w/ WGS and WRC to plan a lot of things. Updates to follow and contact Meghan and Taylor if you have any ideas.
 - Frances provided an idea for a speak-out or tea party where we highlight women of color who are not typically or historically recognized for their contributions.
- Tunnel of Oppression is also happening! If anyone is willing to share stories about sexual assault or violence and is willing to share their story let Crissi Dalfonzo know. There will be professionals present and trigger warnings and a hopeful ending? Stay tuned, the date is March 29th and 30th.

Feminist Issues

- The Senate rejected a vote tonight on a 20-week abortion ban. ☺
- Trump was directly asked if he believed in feminism to which he responded no, he was for "all people"... ☹
- UMaine is currently dealing with an issue of discouraging and or punishing faculty members/student employees/anyone associated with the University from getting involved with politics and activism. For more information Google the Bangor Daily News article about it and ask questions and stay engaged.
- Stay tuned for a post on the Facebook page from Kirsten about a possible sit-in to protest the changes that they're making to the free speech policies on campus and issues facing Native women on local reservations. Talk to Kirsten more if you want to learn more.
- Also a huge CONGRATULATIONS to Kirsten on her incredible speech at the Augusta Women's March!
